EDITORS' TABLE

The Lord Mayor has taken a leaf from Mr. Edward Maudslays book and given the City of Buenos Aires a new and improved coat of arms. The coat of arms is a shield divided into four quarters. The quarters contain a sun, a moon, a star, and a cross. The shield is surrounded by a wreath of wheat and corn. The motto is "Pro Patria et Libertate".

An old lady named Simón died in the City of Buenos Aires. She was 102 years old. She was born in the City of Buenos Aires. She was married to a man named Simón. She had 10 children. She was a very kind and generous person. She was loved by all who knew her.

Dr. Julius Cordero, of Rio, says that the phenomenon and continuous downpour of rain in the City of Buenos Aires is a very rare occurrence. He says that it has not happened for many years. He says that it is a very good omen for the City of Buenos Aires.
